Final Secy
with C. 118-1

There is no objection to his being granted leave without allowances for any period that may be considered reasonable and necessary, and to being allowed to affix the Dusserah Holidays in continuation of the leave. But as regards the total period of privilege leave and vacation which could be given, Article 189(3) M.S.R., expressly limits it to three months and any relaxation of this maximum limit will become an inconvenient precedent, and result in unequal treatment between different officers and in similar applications from others, and is therefore financially unacceptable. The Sunday coming in between vacation and leave (item iii of para 4 of the Notes) cannot be regarded as on duty and has to be treated as leave. The privilege leave should therefore commence on 6th June 1937 and not on 7th June 1937.

The relaxation in this case is of a technical nature, viz, combining vacation with leave. No other concession is claimed. This is not likely to create a precedent. As a matter of fact more liberal treatment has been shown in the case of Mr Metcalfe

Leave to Mr. H.D.C. Reilly, Chief Justice and consequential arrangements.

I submit herewith for His Highness' gracious perusal a letter dated the 14th February 1937 from Mr. H.D.C. Reilly, Chief Justice, intimating that he proposes to apply for such privilege leave as is due to him, in continuation of the summer vacation of the High Court, i.e., from the 7th June 1937, and also for leave without pay in continuation of the privilege leave up to the Dasara Holidays with permission to affix those holidays to the leave. He has also stated that, in his opinion, it will be necessary to appoint an acting Fourth Judge to the High Court for the period of his absence.

2. According to the certificate furnished by the Comptroller, Mr. Reilly will have at his credit two months and three days' privilege leave on half salary on the 7th June 1937. Under Article 189 (3) of the Mysore Service Regulation, however, when vacation is taken in conjunction with privilege leave, whether taken by itself or in combination with other leave, the total period of privilege leave and vacation should not exceed together three months. A strict application of this restrictive clause will limit the amount of privilege leave that can be given to Mr. Reilly to one month, against two months and three days' privilege leave actually earned by him. The Financial Secretary has noted that the leave has to commence from the 6th June 1937 (instead of from the 7th June 1937 as applied for), and he is also not in favour of any relaxation of the rules.

3. In view of the fact that Mr. Reilly will get only half salary during his privilege leave and has also to take leave without allowances for some further period in continuation of the privilege leave, I think that he may, as a special case, be allowed to have all the privilege leave at his credit, viz. two months and three days, in continuation of the vacation from the 6th June 1937. He will thereafter be treated as on leave without pay till the 9th October 1937, and permitted to avail himself of Sunday the 10th October 1937 as also the Dasara Holidays from the 11th to 21st October 1937, both days inclusive.

4. For work during the absence of Mr. Reilly on leave, I recommend the following arrangements:-

(1) Mr. Justice K. Shankaranarayana Rao, the most senior of the Puisne Judges, may be appointed to act as Chief Justice.

(ii) Mr. T. Singaravelu Mudaliar, the most senior among the District and Sessions Judges, may be appointed to act as Judge of the High Court.

21. 5. The above recommendations, which have been agreed to by the Dewan and the Second Member of Council, may be graciously approved. Proposals in regard to the filling up of the consequential vacancies in the grade of District and Subordinate Judges will be called for from the Chief Justice.

Dear Mr. Reilly,

In continuation of my D.O. letter no. 2038 /CB, dated the 15.2. 1937, I am desirous to inform you that Govt. have no objection to your availing yourself of leave in continuance of the ensuing Summer Vacation of the High Court and returning at the end of the Dasara holidays.

The Comptroller has certified that you will have at your credit privilege leave on half salary to the extent of two months and three days. Under Art. 189 (3) of the M.S.R., the amount of privilege leave that can be taken in conjunction with the vacation is limited to one month. Govt. are, however, pleased to permit a special relaxation of this restriction and allow you to take all the privilege leave at your credit (for 2 months and 3 days) in continuation of the vacation and also leave without allowance ~~in continuation~~ thereafter till 9th October with permission to utilise Sunday the 10th October and the Dasara holidays from 11th October to 21st October 1937. Your leave will, however, have to be treated to commence from 6th June (instead of 7th), as it has been held that and the rules a holiday cannot intervene between the vacation and the leave and that Sunday the 6th June is to be included within the leave period.

~~Yours~~ Yrs.

In regard to the arrangements for work during your absence, Govt. have accepted your view that it is necessary to appoint a Fourth
